Dear Parent/Carer

As part of our topic on The Great Fire of London I have arranged for the Real History Company to run a virtual session with us on Monday 8 November.

They work with children bringing the story to life and running workshops to engage and stimulate the children's learning.

The Great fire of London begins with a live interactive show in the morning, followed by interactive workshops including:

- * 17th Century dress up and dance. (Dress up provided)
- * Fire fire! Workshop.
- * The plague doctor: the doctor in the Beak mask brings his crazy cures to show the children!

The cost of the visit is £6.00 per child and can be paid on parent pay

Many thanks for your support.
